

beneficiary, such as your spouse, and ensure a charitable gift to support a cause you care about when you're gone.

Did you know that just like other non profit organizations, you can create a life-income gift to support the ministries of your congregation? What better way to create a legacy for future generations?

For the free booklet, Making a Planned Gift, complete the form below and return it to the church office or contact the Episcopal Church Foundation at 800-697-2858 or www.EpiscopalFoundation.org.

Name _____

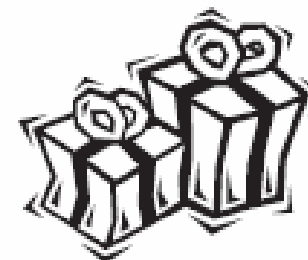

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

Telephone _____

Email _____

LIFE-INCOME GIFTS ARE NOT ONLY FOR YOUR UNIVERSITY AND HOSPITAL

How many of you have noticed that as soon as you reached a certain age, you started getting phone calls and letters asking whether you'd be interested in supporting your alma mater, the hospital, or the local art museum by creating a life-income gift?

Before you turned fifty you might never even have heard about life-income gifts, but you're probably well versed in them now, aren't you?

In fact, life-income gifts such as a charitable gift annuity or charitable unitrust can be a wonderful way to utilize appreciated assets. You can generate an income for yourself, or a designated