

A CUP OF COLD WATER

2017 ANNUAL REPORT

'Loving response to Maui's neediest'

because the needy are oppressed and the poor cry
out in misery,
I will rise up says the Lord and give them the help they long for....
Psalm 12: 5

I read an article recently that talked about the 'can have, will have, can't have' description of homeless people. It was clearly stated this was not meant derogatorily, it was meant to help understand the many reasons and circumstances that put people into the spiral of homelessness.

I agree that there are many circumstances which can bring a person to having to live in the perilous situation of literally having no roof over their head. However, I prefer to think of the people A Cup of Cold Water has served, now serves and will serve as our friends, our neighbors, and our community on Maui. They just happen to be currently in need of help.

A Cup of Cold Water completed its 4th year of ministry to the neediest on Maui as 2017 came to a close. We have been joined by a 4-H club, by the Lion's Club, and by individual homeowners as well as the groups, churches, and Buddhist temples who come together to supply our friends with the basics of life—water (cold please) food, clothing, hygiene, books, and more. It is given with smiles, hugs, prayers, talk story, and blessings. And we continue to be blessed in turn by those same friends with smiles, hugs, tears, and prayers.

This year the ACCW board has spent time clarifying and organizing administratively. At the request of the Diocese, we had our first audit. Suggestions have helped us establish a sound and safe system financially, we are now using QuickBooks, our filing system has entered the 21st century, and we have emergency procedures in place. We have updated our communications with a new website, a master calendar that all 4 Episcopal churches can access, a phone line for people on the street to call, and an e-newsletter.

We have welcomed new volunteers and said goodbye to some. See snippet honoring Duke Casper in this report.

And most importantly, we have continued, without skipping a beat, to send our van out loaded with goods and love 3 times a week, 4 weeks a month, 12 months a year. I honor each and every volunteer who makes this happen.

Some Facts about A Cup of Cold Water.....

*Aloha - drove the van last Saturday and served 102 souls. Stanley came to the van with the rooster in his arms, mark your calendars the rooster will be 2 yrs old this Easter. located the family of five at the harbor and gave them the 5 bags of clothing and toys. While Joan and Peggy did the hard work serving through the side door of the van, I took the family to the back so they could see what were in the bags. when I took out the yellow furred teddy bear, I thought they were going to faint with happiness. The words of a song came to mind " a funny looking bear with a button nose and gleaming eyes filled with love for a little girl". Thanks for letting me serve....John Patrick Murphy, Run Leader for ACCW 1.23.18

In 2017, A Cup of Cold Water conducted 165 mission runs and completed 9,305 service contacts with people in need.

Street People served:	9,305

A Cup of Cold Water also distributed thousands of other items including: footwear, caps, blankets, towels, tarps, rain ponchos, backpacks, washcloths, eye glasses, pet food and other miscellaneous items.

In honor of Duke Casper, one of the first run leaders, now moved to mainland.

Duke was the 'Mayor of Lahaina'. Everybody knew him and he knew everybody, their family and their story. Duke really cared for the homeless and needy: he knew their names, their families' names, telephone numbers, health issues. And they knew him. I'm still asked "Where's Duke?", "When's Duke coming back?" Duke saw each of them as an individual, as someone of value, as someone "there ,but for the fortune, go you or I". I strive to be as caring as Duke each and every run. George Brown And we all say Amen.

ACCW Mission Financials 2017

A Cup of Cold Water is first and foremost a spiritual mission. In actuality, 100% of our monetary donations and in kind donations go towards the Outreach Mission. Whether it is administrative work, operational duties, insurance fees, fuel & maintenance, or food and supply purchases, it is all used for street mission or to direct outreach on Maui. We continue to cherish and hold fast to our all-volunteer, zero salaries, no government money philosophy, instead relying on the over-flowing stream of servant-ship and wealth through gratitude and grace.

ACCW Mission Highlights & Data 2017

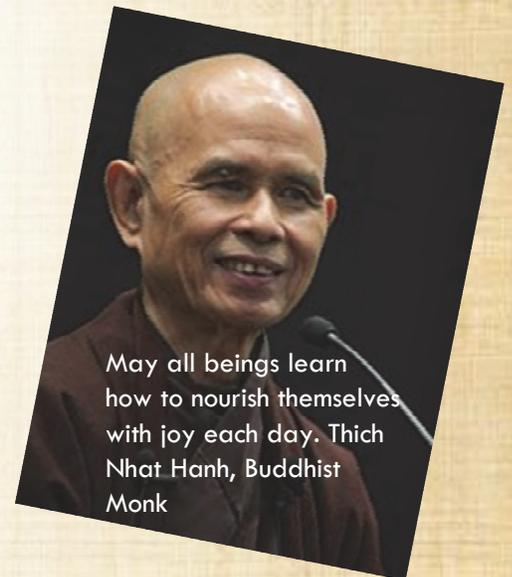

A Cup of Cold Water is driven by the servant hood spirit of Jesus Christ and it is within this spiritual context that we serve as volunteers, seeking our place with our fellow humans by serving our destitute at their point of need. We desire to experience God through loving service with our neighbors on Maui.

Our Team currently consists of over 80 servants and many friends. All are volunteers. It includes our Board of Directors who are also assigned administrative tasks, Mission Run Leaders, Mission riders, and a Supply Team which handles intake, sorting, purchasing, organizing, and counting. All these ensure we are mission ready every day, every week, and every month.

In Kind Volunteer Hours:

Mission Runs	2,475 hours
Supply Team	2154 hours
Administrative	1,305 hours
Total Volunteer Hours:	5,934 hours
Total Value of In-Kind Hours:	$54,889.50*

*based on the current State of Hawaii minimum hourly wage of $9.25, In-Kind Hours Value calculation reflects estimated cost of donated person-hours.

Audit Information: The Episcopal Diocese of Hawaii requested A Cup of Cold Water be audited in 2017. We did so. Excellent administrative tools were suggested by Carr, Gouveia & Associates, CPA's, Inc. We have put one financial suggestion into place and are working on others. These are addressed in our President's report on page 2.

Just Walking

Fame or no name,
Just walking
Alone,
Just walking
Friend or foe,
Just walking
Dead to the world,
Just walking
Heart emptied,
Just walking
Complete void,
Just walking
Hungry,

Just walking
Thirsty,
Just walking
Helpless,
Just walking
In the sun,
Just walking
Under the moon,
Just walking
Growing flowers,
Just walking
Singing birds
Just walking
Blowing trades,
Just walking

Hopeful,
Just walking
In Christ,
Just being.
