If you are looking to get away for a vacation, retreat, writing time, sabbatical, all you have to do is get yourself to the Big Island of Hawai'i, to enjoy the warm hospitable aloha of the Episcopal congregation of St. Jude, Ocean View. A small, very active outreach-driven congregation offers you a two bedroom, two bath, den, newly refurbished vicarage to stay in during your time in Hawai'i. All that is asked is that you celebrate the Eucharist with them each Sunday you are in residence. The rest of the week you are on your own to relax at home, write, tour the Big Island, swim, snorkel, fly over to Waikiki or one of the other islands and enjoy paradise!

THE BIG ISLAND OF HAWAII

The Big Island contains 11 of the 13 official climate zones of the world. You can, in one day, go from the finest sea coast beaches and resorts to snow at the Mauna Kea volcano observatories. You can drive from dry-side Kailua-Kona to wet side old Hilo Town across the Saddle Road. There are old sugar plantation small towns, Kona and Kau coffee, fresh fish to grill, consume papaya, mangos, and pineapples.

You can swim, snorkel, kayak, fish, golf, watch the lava flows at Kilauea Volcano or visit macadamia nut and coffee farms.
