

For immediate release
15 June 2017

Job Posting

Executive Director- Waialua, Hawai'i, Island of Oahu

Camp Mokule'ia, founded by the Episcopal Diocese of Hawaii, open to all individuals and groups regardless of religious belief, is seeking an Executive Director to provide leadership and oversight for overall operations, work collaboratively with the Board to develop and implement the mission and vision for this year-round camp and conference center, located on $\frac{3}{4}$ mile beachfront and farm acreage at the base of the Waialae Mountain range. The Executive Director will insure safe, effective management of the camp land, facilities, personnel, & develop exciting programming for diverse groups, families, faith groups, and individuals. The E.D. should possess strong interpersonal and verbal skills; the ability to build trust, to communicate honestly with empathy, to implement systems, delegate, coach, & provide feedback; work independently and as part of a team; handle stressful situations with calm, rational, effective action.

Minimum Qualifications B.A. or B.S. degree; 3-5 years of counseling or camping experience; 3-5 years of camp administration (asst. /or director, program director, etc.)

Preferred Qualification: Post Graduate degree or certification in Outdoor or Environmental studies, Business or Education Administration.

Preferred Experience: 2-3 yrs. Camp Director or Executive Director experience; spiritual counseling, youth ministry

Submit cover letter, contact information (email, telephone, postal address) for 2 work-related professional references, 1 character reference.

For more information and application visit campmokuleiahr@gmail.com

(ACA member accredited, ECCC member)