

Tough Love

IT'S NOT EASY to talk to your parents about some things. But you must.

Don't put it off. Talk to them today about updating their wills and securing their financial future. They may be able to create income for themselves as well as make a gift to their parish.

Call your church or The Episcopal Church Foundation to discuss the options.