

How will we bear fruit?

Luscious summer fruit reminds us of the bounty of God's blessings. How can we give thanks for all our blessings?

Through prayer, service to others and gifts such as bequests or planned gifts to the ministries of the church, which has nourished us. Our grateful response will plant seeds of faith, yielding much fruit in the next generation.

The Episcopal Church Foundation can help you plant for tomorrow's harvest.